Hi Kris,

Attached you will find Syngenta's response to the draft thiamethoxam biological evaluation, which is paired with the CDX submission I sent the other day. Chuck also sent me some data, but I am waiting for the password for that data still. I'll send that as soon as I receive more information.

On a related note, do we have an EFED contact to forward comments to at this point?

Thanks,

Matt

Hello Matt – here is Syngenta's formal response to the Thiamethoxam BE which I uploaded today to the docket.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Have a great night!

Chuck
